

Missing Please Help

Appearance: flying ace's moustache; crisp, white shirt; double-breasted blazer; maroon, silver and blue striped Royal Air Force tie; service medals; polished, gold buttons; neatly pressed, grey slacks; brown, checked slippers.

Behaviour:

- Known for telling thrilling stories about his real-life wartime adventures
- Likely to be confused or disoriented, potentially re-enacting a Luftwaffe battle or displaying similar eccentric behaviour
- Often located somewhere up high, flying his Spitfire (or so he believes)
- Answers to the name 'Wing Commander'
- Responds only to military language and gestures, for example: roger; fall out; jolly good show, old boy; retire to your quarters.

Answers

1. Which physical characteristics will people need to look out for to identify Grandpa? Tick two.

- crisp, white tie                       flying ace's moustache
 brown, checked slippers         polished, silver buttons maroon, gold and blue striped tie

2. Find and copy a phrase from the text that means 'a jacket that overlaps at the front showing two rows of buttons'.

double-breasted blazer

3. Explain why the phrase 'eccentric behaviour' is used to describe Grandpa.

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think eccentric behaviour is used to describe Grandpa because he thinks he is still a wartime pilot so he re-enacts battles.

4. Who has Jack written this poster for?

Pupils' own responses, such as: I think Jack has written this poster for people in the local area, who might see Grandpa when out and about.
