

Two for One

All our lives, we have done everything together. We've had the same haircuts, worn the same clothes, and we've even finished all of our meals at exactly the same time. But, there is one thing that is very different, the soccer teams we play on.

I play for the Bolton Buffalos (clearly the best) and Johnny plays for the Leigh Lions. Last Sunday was the first time our teams competed against each other and the stakes were high. It was the final of the local soccer league's annual competition and, what a surprise, the Jones twins struck again. We both scored a goal within the last minute of the match and the final score was tied at one. I guess we're not so different after all.

Quick Questions

1. How else could the author have said this?
"The Jones twins struck again."

2. What is the twins' last name?

3. What is similar and different about the twins?

Similar: _____

Different: _____

4. What do the words "clearly the best" in parentheses show about the author's opinion on the soccer teams the twins play for?

Two for One

All our lives, we have done everything together. We've had the same haircuts, worn the same clothes, and we've even finished all of our meals at exactly the same time. But, there is one thing that is very different, the soccer teams we play on.

I play for the Bolton Buffalos (clearly the best) and Johnny plays for the Leigh Lions. Last Sunday was the first time our teams competed against each other and the stakes were high. It was the final of the local soccer league's annual competition and, what a surprise, the Jones twins struck again. We both scored a goal within the last minute of the match and the final score was tied at one. I guess we're not so different after all.

Answers

1. How else could the author have said this?
"The Jones twins struck again."
The Jones twins did it again.

2. What is the twins' last name?
Jones

3. What is similar and different about the twins?
Similarities: haircuts, clothes, eating speed, amount of goals scored Differences: soccer team

4. What do the words "clearly the best" in parentheses show about the author's opinion on the soccer teams the twins play for?
The author plays for the Bolton Buffalos so he clearly things they are better than his brother's choice of team.